

Each state has the right to compile and enforce it's own "Do Not Call List" with the state deciding how tough the Telephone Consumer Protection Act should be for their residents. The fact that the Federal government wants to overturn it is just another example of the Federal government meddling in tax payers lives for the benefit of big business. Please do not force the states to comply with the weaker Federal version of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act.